The Church-wide Gathering scheduled for June 22 has been postponed in order to allow Pastor Eric to begin his ministry at Christ Venice Church. By doing this, Pastor Eric will be able to understand the unique context of our church and get to know our members. Together, we can begin our planning and visioning. The new date for a church-wide gathering will be forthcoming.

Vacation Bible School's (VBS) Mission Focus for Fun

During VBS this year, we are collecting children's clothing and cash donations for The Twig (https://www.thetwigcares.com/), supporting local foster children. To make it fun, four candidates—Pastor Bob, Pastor Dave, Megan, and Traeclyn—are competing for a dunk tank spot at our Friday Family Party on July 11 from noon - 2pm. Whoever collects the most donations wins the dunk! Use the pink pew envelopes and designate donations to The Twig and list your dunk candidate of choice. Children's clothing collection bins are in Memorial Hall to further assist The Twig. The Twig greatly appreciates your support!

Special Needs Ministry

Special Needs Ministry meets every Sunday in conjunction with morning services from 9:00am to 11:00am in the Family Life Center. We seek enthusiastic volunteers to support this ministry by helping with Bible learning lessons, crafts, and snack time. If you be interested in serving this ministry, email Traeclyn@ChristVenice.com.

Pray for Guidance and Healing

Start with prayer, asking God for wisdom, patience, and a heart of forgiveness. Scripture emphasizes prayer as a foundation for reconciliation (Philippians 4:6-7). Pray for the family member, your relationship, and the strength to approach them with love, trusting God to guide the process.

Practice Forgiveness

Forgiveness is central to Christianity, modeled by Jesus' sacrifice (Colossians 3:13). Acknowledge any hurt, but choose to forgive, releasing resentment. This doesn't mean excusing harm, but freeing your heart to pursue peace, even if reconciliation is gradual or incomplete.

Initiate Humble Communication

Take the first step toward reconciliation, as Jesus encourages peacemaking (Matthew 5:23-24). Approach the family member with humility, listening to their perspective without defensiveness. Express your feelings calmly, focusing on restoration rather than blame, and seek mutual understanding.

Show Love and Patience

Reflect Christ's love through actions, even if the relationship is strained (1 Corinthians 13:4-7). Small gestures—kind words, a thoughtful act, or spending time together—can rebuild trust. Be patient, as reconciliation often takes time, especially if wounds are deep.

Seek Counsel

If direct efforts stall, involve a neutral third party, such as a Christian counselor, to facilitate dialogue. Jesus supports resolving conflicts with help from others (Matthew 18:15-16). Professional guidance rooted in faith can provide tools to navigate complex family dynamics.

These steps align with Christian values of love, forgiveness, and humility, fostering healing while honoring God's call to unity.
